Call for Papers for SHASE Annual Conference 2025, September 3 – 5, Takamatsu, Japan

1. Objective

Society of Heating, Air-conditioning and Sanitary Engineers of Japan (SHASE) is a major organization for heating, air-conditioning and sanitary engineering in Japan with a history of over 100 years.

SHASE presents the 21st century vision as “growth strategy and ultra-low-carbon solution of environment and equipment technology that supports the 21st century.” For the last few years SHASE has been holding international sessions in English in the SHASE Annual Conference. SHASE welcomes the members of its associate societies such as: ASHRAE, REHVA, CCHVAC, AIRAH, SCANVAC, CIBSE, AICARR, SAREK, AIT, KIAEBS and ISHRAE to take part in the Annual Conference. The attending members of these societies would have the same privileges of participation as that of SHASE members.

2. Topics

From these members, SHASE calls for academic and technical papers addressing advances and practices across HVAC&R systems, equipment, fundamentals, water supply, drainage, sanitary engineering and applications to be presented at the Annual Conference.

3. Authorship Requirements

- (1) In case of multiple authors, only one author is permitted to present the paper.
- (2) The presenter must be a member of SHASE or other societies associated to it through a Memorandum of Understanding such as: ASHRAE, REHVA, CCHVAC, AIRAH, SCANVAC, CIBSE, AICARR, SAREK, AIT, KIAEBS and ISHRAE.
- (3) One person can make only one presentation.

4. Presentation Policy and Registration fees

- (1) All the presenters must register for the conference.
- (2) Change of the presenter is allowed only under unexpected exigencies. In such cases, the registered presenter must inform the organizers before the Conference commences.
- (3) A presenter and the coauthors have to pay a presentation fee of ¥4,500 each at the conference, apart from a participation fee. If a coauthor is not a member of SHASE or its associate society mentioned above, he/she has to pay a registration fee of ¥7,000.

5. Paper submission and format

The authors must submit their papers following the paper writing template attached. The manuscript must be either in MS WORD or PDF file types.

6. Paper acceptance

(1) The papers are reviewed and then may be accepted by the organizing committee of the SHASE conference.

(2) A paper shall be rejected if its content

- 1) Is insufficient for a conference paper.
- 2) Is already published elsewhere in part or in full.
- 3) Attempts commercial advertising.
- 4) Violates the formatting or submission guidelines.

7. Participation fee

Participation fee must be paid during or prior to the conference as per the following:

Members of SHASE	¥7,000
Members of international associate societies	¥7,000
Student members of SHASE	¥3,000
Student members of associate societies	¥3,000
Non member	¥11,000

8. Submission deadlines

Authors have to submit their manuscript before the deadline. Authors must email their papers as an attachment to handa@shase.or.jp between 3rd March and 19th May, 2025.
